

Financial Health

Financial literacy has become an emerging global workplace wellness initiative as more and more employees voice their concern regarding their personal financial position and its impact on their work & life.

Only 30% of Australians see themselves as financially fit with 1 in 3 Australians feeling financial stress and 50% of Australian workers indicating they are worried about their personal finances.

SEMINARS / WORKSHOPS

We offer a variety of financial health topics as either:-

- Face to Face Seminars / Workshops
- Webinars – live & pre recorded
- Online self paced modules

Topics include but not limited to:-

- Balance your books – balance your life
- Superannuation & You
- Retirement Preparedness
- Finance Basics 101

All our sessions are designed to improve participants' financial literacy. No products or services are marketed in the sessions.

ONLINE SOLUTIONS

Easy to use online solutions to assist employees better manage their finances and build personalised financial plans.

Financial Goals

We all have financial goals, whether they be to get out of debt, increase super or even pay off the mortgage.

Access to Resources

It provides access to resource articles, tips, explainer videos and a personal email coach to help employees stay educated and motivated.

No product selling

There is no marketing or selling of any financial products / services.

Self Managed

It is a 100% online, self-directed service that lets employees create their own financial road map based on your goals.

For more information and a demonstration please Contact Us.

